Harshman To Preside Over Recognition Day

Seniors and faculty will march in academic regalia to the ballroom at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday, May 22, for the annual Recognition Day Program.

The University Concert Band, under the direction of Roy J. Weger, associate professor of music, will play the processional and recessional music.

President Ralph G. Harshman will preside over the presentation of awards to more than 150 students. New members of Omicron Delta Kappa, men's honor society, and Cap and Gown, women's honor society will be presented.

The Rev. James Trautwein, vicar of St. John's Episcopal Church, Bowling Green, will give the invocation and benediction.

President Harshman will make announcements pertaining to service organizations, athletic, and honorary society awards presented previously. He then will announce the 40 departmental, college, and University awards.

There will be 26 departmental awards, including awards in journalism, accounting, mathematics, languages, biology, art, music, sociology, and Army and Air Force medals.

Also given will be four college awards, two in the College of Education, and one each in the College of Liberal Arts and the College of Business Administration.

Included in the 10 University awards are the President's Award, given to the outstanding senior man and woman, distinguished service awards, Sidney Frohman Scholarship Awards, and recognition of the senior members of Sigma Xi, the anonymous men's booster club.

Seniors will meet at 10:20 a.m. in the main auditorium. Members of the faculty are to meet at 10:20 a.m. in the south corridor of the first floor of the Administration Bldg. In case of inclement weather, both groups will assemble in the ballroom.

"Everyone is invited and urged to attend the Recognition Day Program," said Dr. Ralph H. Geer, director of summer and off-campus programs, who is in charge of the program.

Grimm Accepts New Position

James C. Grimm, director of residence services, has submitted his resignation, effective June 30, to accept a position at the University of Miami, in Coral Gables, Florida.

After being graduated from Bowling Green in 1954, Mr. Grimm went on to receive the masters degree in education from the University.

Mr. Grimm spent two years in the Army, then returned to Bowling Green in 1957 to become Head Resident of Rodger's Quadrangle. In 1958 he became Assistant Dean of Men of the University, and for the past three years he has been director of residence services.

His new position will be similar to the job he now holds, but will include greater responsibilities. "This added responsibility is due in part to the larger enrollment at the University of Miami," Mr. Grimm said.

His new job will primarily include hiring head residents, counselors, and developing a counseling program for men.

Hunger Gives Inaugural Speech

GAVEL EXCHANGE takes place between past Student Body President Clark D. Tibbitts and newly installed President David J. Hunger. Hunger received congratulations and encouragement for his term from Tibbitts who will be graduated in June. The exchange took place at the Inaugural Banquet for Student Council and Student Body Board members last night.

J. David Hunger, president-elect of the Student Body, received the oath of office and then addressed those present last night at the Student Council Inaugural Banquet.

This year's Council and Cabinet members, newly-elected Council members, and newly-appointed members of Student Body Boards were invited to attend the event.

Council advisers Dean Florence K. Currier, Dean Lloyd A. Helms, Dean Donnal V. Smith, and Dean Wallace W. Taylor also were invited.

Clark D. Tibbitts, president of the Student Body, was toastmaster for the banquet.

Hunger Speaks

Hunger stated that the purpose of college is to prepare a person to take an active role in the world.

He interpreted the role of student government in fulfilling this purpose of college. He told of Bowling Green's former student government stating that the Student Senate was a "do-nothing" group and that the former Student Council spent its time improving the internal organization of Council.

He added that Council must now assume an active role in representing the students and in working to make Bowling Green a better University for all concerned: students, faculty, and administration.

Communications Week

Communications between Council and the Student Body was considered in Hunger's inaugural speech. He stated, "Students, especially freshmen, do not understand the operation of Council, its organization, limitations, or possibilities. This is because the Student Council minutes are rarely read. Students are usually ignorant as to whom their representatives are."

He also stated that Council does not always hear or understand the problems of the average student. The members of Council personally do not bother to search out problems on campus.

Appeal For Liberals

"Council and the Boards must become more liberal-minded," said Hunger. "Students must be given scope to think and act so that they may learn." Also included was the idea that "liberal-minded" students should not be classified as "dangerous" by Council.

Hunger believes, "Council has the duty of working to better Bowling Green's public relations by building student morale."

President-elect Hunger concluded with the remark, "A student proud of his university is the best public relations a campus can have."

PR Unit Receives Rifle, Drill Awards At Columbus Meet

First and second awards in rifle and drill competition were won by the Pershing Rifles, national honorary military society, at the Regimental Drill Meet held at Lockbourne Air Force Base, Columbus, May 11 and 12.

The Bowling Green unit of Pershing Rifles, known to other PR units as Company I, received the first place trophy for the postal rifle match held in conjunction with the meet. The five members of the winning team were Larry J. Schmidt, William H. Wohler, Karl M. Sievert, John R. Bramblett, and William N. Blair. Wohler was the first place winner for the individual scores, and Sievert placed third.

The other trophy came for placing second in exhibition or trick platoon drill. The platoon is commanded by cadet first lieutenant Terrence H. Martell and has placed in every meet so far this season.

There were a total of fifteen teams of the First Regiment, Pershing Rifles, competing in the match. They were from West Virginia, Kentucky, and Ohio.

The next drill meet for the Pershing Rifles will be the All-Ohio Invitational, Saturday, to be held at Ohio State University.

Father Weigel To Speak Sunday On Protestant-Catholic Relations

Father Gustave Weigel, considered by both protestants and Catholics as an authority on the relationships between the two religions, will be the featured speaker

McAfee Brown, has done much to emphasize that Catholics and protestants can live and talk happily together about a common topic, the church.

In addition to his teaching duties at Woodstock, Father Weigel is Catholic Consultant for the Encyclopedia Britannica and consultant to the secretary for promoting Christian unity for ecumenical council called by Pope John for later this year.

The religious emphasis committee has invited all students, faculty, and the public to attend the lecture.

'Venus' To Reign At Chariot Race

With the crowning of the 1962 Venus Queen at 7:30 tonight behind the Union, Kappa Sigma social fraternity begins its biggest week end of the year.

The Venus Queen will reign over the fourteenth annual all-campus Kappa Sigma Chariot Race, starting tomorrow at 12:15 p.m. with a parade through the downtown area.

Special guests at the Venus Queen program tonight will be Gwen A. Cornman, 1961 Venus Queen, and Judith L. Kiss, 1960 Venus Queen and this year's May Queen.

"The Venus Queen program is open to the public and will feature the crowning of the queen, and the Kappa Sigma quartet," said Jerome J. Bulcher, chairman of the Chariot Race.

Eighteen candidates are entered in the competition for Venus Queen. From the top 10 candidates, which were picked by the editors of McCall's magazine, the Kappa Sigs will choose their queen.

Judging the decorations of the chariots tomorrow will be Mrs. Iva Damewood, head resident of Kappa Sigma, Wallace W. Taylor, dean of men, and Max C. Graeber, local merchant and recently initiated member of Kappa Sigma.

The chariots will be judged as follows: 50 per cent on authenticity, 30 per cent on beauty, and 20 per cent on the participants' dress.

FOUND A COOL SPOT or is he preparing for the Kappa Sigma Chariot Race to be held tomorrow? The chariots will be judged on authenticity, beauty, and participants' dress. Here's hoping this "Ben Hur" is ready for the big race.

KEY CONCERN was the job of Editor Thomas J. Stellars (seated) and Business Manager Reinhard J. Breitwieser in the production of the 1961-62 Bowling Green yearbook. Here they pause for a long look at the new KEY to be distributed Tuesday behind Hanna Hall. Joyce A. Harmon designed the cover of this year's KEY.

Students To Get KEY Behind Hanna Tuesday

Distribution of the 1961-62 edition of the University yearbook KEY, will be held behind Hanna Hall at 1 p.m. Tuesday. In the event of rain, distribution will be conducted on the main auditorium stage in the Administration Bldg.

Consisting of vertical stripes and four shades of green, this year's KEY cover, designed by Joyce A. Harmon, junior art major, was printed in lithograph style for the first time in KEY history.

Orders for 4,680 copies have been received, largest circulation ever. This exceeds last year's total by 300 copies. The KEY outsells the Michigan State University yearbook which has four times the student enrollment available.

This year's theme, "This is BGSU—Moods, Places, People, Symbolic Traditions, Ideas,—But Mostly People," has 16 pages.

Other features include 16 color pictures and apple-green-colored division pages. Differing from last year's KEY, the Greek section, the class sections, and the administration sections have been separated.

All headlines are in lower case, and hand-set cutlines are set in the extended sans-serif style in order to present readers with a different KEY. Due to a large number of complaints last year concerning the lack of page numbers in the classes section, this year's KEY has included one-inch high page numbers.

James R. Gordon, adviser, and Thomas J. Stellars, editor, feel that this year's KEY has an excellent opportunity of being awarded an All-American rating for the second year in a row.

Letters To The Editor

NEWS Hits Low?

To the Editor:

The BG NEWS editorial of last Friday, ostensibly congratulating the Las Almas social society, has hit a new low in nonconstructive journalism. After a brief paragraph of congratulations, the editorial listed several apparently logical reasons why Las Almas had previously been denied membership in PanHel, implying that the reasons were actually nothing but thinly disguised prejudice, when in fact these are conditions which any prospective fraternity or sorority must meet.

Then the statement is made that their recent acceptance indicates that "perhaps racial prejudice on this campus is not complete" — indicating that up until this time there had existed a complete, solid wall of intolerance and discrimination here at B.G. The hope that "the next step will be a breakdown of racial barriers within the individual sororities" would itself command a lengthy rebuttal concerning the right of any individual or group to choose its own associates and members.

Finally, the editorial spends time decrying the case of a Wisconsin sorority; a case which is not only irrelevant to the local situation, but really not the business of the NEWS editor—nor any outsider for that matter.

The editor of the BG NEWS (assisted by some of her staff) apparently accords herself the right to sit in judgment on social groups, both locally and nationally; and the BG NEWS is unfortunately used as her means of letting us all know of her judicial decisions (and perhaps a prejudice of her own, as long as we are on the subject).

Editorials of this caliber serve little, if any, constructive purpose, but only stir up bitterness and discontent. And as far as its benefits to Las Almas go, I imagine that it did little more than embarrass them.

Tod Butler

Editor's Note

The editorial to which this letter refers did not imply that there was prejudice apparent in the action of the administration; in fact the editorial clearly stated the reason for which the petition of Las Almas was turned down last year.

As for events in Wisconsin or anywhere else being the business of the NEWS editor, we feel that the preservation of human rights is the business of everyone.

Prejudice Or Choosiness?

To the Editor:

Last week in the paper there was an editorial concerning a colored sorority and prejudice on the campus where sororities and fraternities are involved. Fraternities and sororities are social clubs where people choose whom they desire to associate with. In other words, the idea is to be selective and choosy. There isn't a thing wrong with this. People form cliques practically from the cradle to later life. There is, I hope, still such a thing as privacy and the right to choose your own friends.

There is no reason in fact or fancy for making this a political or social issue. If everyone could get into a Greek outfit there wouldn't be much reason for them to exist. Classifying it as a matter of racial prejudice is the same as telling me that I can't choose my own friends. There's not a person or thing on this earth that can tell me I don't have this right.

If I were an active fraternity man I'd tell those who dislike or scream trite objections about this to get lost.

Membership in a fraternity or sorority is a privilege granted to those deemed acceptable and desirable by the group seeking new members. It is contingent upon the whims and fancies of these active members. To make something of this other than the above mentioned facts is to deny their basic rights.

That's Show Biz

To the Editor:

First, I think that I should admit that I rarely get a chance to read your publication, so that you will have the chance to say, "Aha, the one time in a million that she picks it up, it contains a mistake." To which I could merely meekly nod, and think to myself about all of the comment I have previously heard about incorrect reporting.

Now, I don't want to sound like an irate director (although, I imagine if you inquired of my cost they would probably agree) but in your last issue, there seems to have been a slightly incorrect account of what is to transpire Friday night, May 18, in the Joe E. Brown Theatre. The bill of one-acts to be presented is on Friday night, it is beginning at 7:30 p.m. and it is to be presented in Arena Style, however, it is not a bill THREE one-acts. It is a bill of FOUR one-acts.

In addition to the other three you mentioned, "Lord Byron's Love Letter" by Tennessee Williams, which was so ably assisted directed by Cindy Chamberlain, will be an additional feature on the bill. We also have an outstanding cast, containing several new names in the theatre world, Elizabeth Armstead as the Spinster, Judi Elliott as the Old Woman, Pat Magers as the Matron, and Art Saxton as the husband.

I am sure that you, and all of your readers will want to come see it!

'Hasty Action'—Lucas

To the Editor:

In regard to the editorial appearing in this Tuesday's copy of the BG NEWS concerning the supposedly inert student governing bodies on the Bowling Green campus. I was rather surprised by the hastiness with which the NEWS acted in concern for this Saturday's alleged violation of the IFC Judicial Board's verdict rendered earlier this year in the case of the Pi Kappa Alpha pie-eating contest problem.

As the violation allegedly took place this Saturday and as the Constitution of the Judicial Board clearly states that a charge against a fraternity "must be submitted to the Chairman of the Judicial Board within ten days of the alleged violation," I hope that the NEWS will bear with us while our prosecutor thoroughly investigates the circumstances surrounding the situation before he files his charge with me. The period of ten days was purposely included in the process of submitting charges to the Board to permit greater accuracy and fairness in the entire operation of the IFC's Judicial body. It should be made clear that it is not the purpose of the Judicial Board to make rapid, punitive action but to serve Bowling Green fraternities as an agent to insure their rights in matters of a conflicting nature. In other words, the object of this organization is justice, not speed. Obviously the proper means of effecting this end involves a detailed study of the area of concern, which process, rest assured, is presently being carried out.

Since the actions of the Judicial Board are of such a nature as to effect many Bowling Green Students, it is a necessity that the BG NEWS accurately cover the Board's proceedings; and we of that body welcome the publication of its decision. In the hope of having better campus communications, however, I feel that in cases such as the above the NEWS could do much to create even better news coverage by emphasizing more thorough investigation instead of speed.

John W. Lucas
Executive Vice-President
Interfraternity Council

The editorial concerning Delta Upsilon, the fraternity on probation, was not written until officers of Delta Upsilon (fraternity officers of IFC: Ervin A. Brown, adviser to IFC; and Richard Bradley, chairman of the Judicial Board when the decision was rendered; were contacted.

DU's Explain

To the Editor:

Delta Upsilon wishes to explain their participation in the Spring Week End Float Contest. The letter from the I.F.C. prohibiting the Fraternity from participating in that event was lost during a change of offices; its contents were not called to the attention of the Chapter. The new officers, not wishing to hurt the chances of Alpha Phi and Phi Kappa Psi by decreasing the amount of man power available for work on the float, contacted Mr. Brown (Assistant Dean of Men) to see if they could participate. After obtaining Mr. Brown's advice they agreed to help.

Delta Upsilon regrets its inadvertent participation in the contest; their mistake can be attributed to a period of lax operation during the change of officers. We are sure that the Executive Board of I.F.C. will understand the temporary inefficiency that accompanies a change in administration; they have not yet acted on Delta Upsilon's appeal for a rehearing of their case. The appeal was filed soon after the end of Easter vacation.

Federal Aid To Education Bill-- What It Means To Bowling Green

By Elaine Kitchen
Staff Writer

Federal Aid to education is a major debate in higher education today. What would federal aid to education do for a university? What effect would such aid have on Bowling Green State University?

"Federal aid to education, if passed, would not help Bowling Green until the existing laws could be changed," stated Mr. Ervin Kriescher, treasurer of the University.

The House of Representatives presented an Act and the Senate a Bill for federal aid to education at the 87th Congress sessions. The Senate and the House could not agree on terms for the legislation so the matter has been referred to a Conference committee. The committee is expected to come up with a compromise bill. This will have to be voted on again by the House and Senate.

Matching Funds, Grants

Mr. Kriescher explained that matching funds and grants are the two proposed legislations. The University would be expected to match, dollar for dollar, any money allocated by the federal government in the matching funds program.

The loan or grant program would pertain to self-liquidating structures such as dorms. This would not include loans for classrooms or libraries. The state would have to change laws before we could benefit from this legislation.

The University must have definite plans before any federal moneys can be given. Recently the University Board of Directors allocated money for the study of a new library and heating plant. If federal aid passes and existing laws are changed, the University could take their plans to the government and possibly qualify under the loan program. At present there is no authority to borrow and no matching funds program.

Already Receive Aid

We do receive some federal aid already. Bowling Green receives the limit ($250,000) for student loans. This amount could be increased through pending legislation and Bowling Green could participate in increased loan funds.

This fall there will be four students working on their Doctorate in English through the National Defense Education Act Title 4. This provides $2,000 to the student for study the first year, $2,200 the second year, $2,400 for each succeeding year plus $400 for each dependent every year. The University receives a stipend for this program from the NDEA also.

Every year students drop out of school because of lack of funds. Many do not consider federal aid. "Students aren't aware of this type of federal aid," commented Mr. Robert McKay, director of student financial aid. "Bowling Green tries to help as many students as possible through the National Defense loans," he added. Students may pick up a loan application at the Student Financial Aid Office in the Administration Building.

Students Need Coloring Book?

In the SPECTATOR of Seattle University, Bob Jordan offers some drawings to be colored, with the following captions:

I am a college student. Color me ivy league. Notice my pipe. It looks good. It tastes awful. Color it prominent. Notice my sunglasses. They keep the rain out of my eyes. Color them useful.

These are my parents. They pay for my education. Color them poor. They thought college would make me a better man. Color them disillusioned.

This is my cigarette pack. Everybody borrows it. Color it empty.

These are my tennis shoes. They are my status symbols. I am a big wheel. Color the toes out. Color the laces broken. Color one lost under my bed.

Wolf Calls

Columnist Documents 'Gettysburg Address'

By Jerry Wolfrum

There is only one thing that keeps Abe Lincoln's "Gettysburg Address" from being a really good piece of writing. Scribbling it out on a bumpy train and without proper writing equipment, the old rail-splitter disastereously forgot to document his work.

It is unfortunate that Mr. Lincoln was not a college professor with adequate professional training in research and textbook-writing techniques. Had Lincoln been aware of the importance of proper form, his work would have been more impressive and lasting. His address at Gettysburg would have gone something like this:

FOUR SCORE AND SEVEN YEARS AGO (As defined by Goodhammer in his circumscription, "Colloquial Expressions As Related To Their Correlation To Certain Time Measurement References," Shears and Sawbuck, Vol. II, p. 332) OUR FATHERS, Smithboot thinks, BROUGHT FORTH (Hoodwink believes evidence in the E. G. Heade Studies support the supposition.) ON THIS CONTINENT (Boondock supported this basic hypothesis at the 1919 convention of the B. U. L. Society) A NEW NATION, CONCEIVED IN LIBERTY (See Fingerpait experiments) AND DEDICATED TO (Barnyard and Barnyard disagree) THE PROPOSITION THAT ALL MEN (My colleagues at Windblow U. may defect in the face of unsupported evidence advanced by Professors Bottles, Keggs, and Kanz) ARE CREATED EQUAL.

NOW WE (a term applicable only when it is considered in the light of numerous geographical limitations.) ARE ENGAGED IN A GREAT CIVIL WAR. (Dr. Emsom Saltz, in a recent discourse in the April issue of "The Snow Job Society Review Quarterly," said that "... a grass roots political misunderstanding can be considered no more than a police action when certain factors are introduced.") TESTING WHETHER THAT NATION, OR ANY NATION SO CONCEIVED, AND SO DEDICATED CAN LONG ENDURE (See critical analysis and scattergrams published by Chartreuse, Burgundy, and Lavandar.)

WE ARE MET (Hocum first made this observation while studying on an Emptyright scholarship at Blowhard College.) ON A GREAT BATTLE FIELD OF THAT WAR. (Goldbrick and Feathermerchant accept this basic concept, stipulating only that basic assumptions be predetermined and clearly spelled out.)

WE COME TO DEDICATE A PORTION OF THAT FIELD (coffeecake, in a series of qualitative and quantitative graphs offers evidence that ramifications in standard methodology in numerical preference indicates this idea may have merit.) AS THE FINAL RESTING PLACE OF THOSE WHO GAVE (Summersession basically agrees with this theory in his latest volume, "Research Can Be Fun.") THEIR LIVES THAT THIS NATION (Dr. Saddlesore doubts this on the technical grounds that there are definite premonitions of prospective probabilities.) MIGHT LIVE.

IT IS ALTOGETHER FITTING AND PROPER (Dr. Loom and Dr. Topsoil consider this a negated stipulation) THAT WE SHOULD DO THIS. BUT IN A LARGER SENSE (Dr. Lost found reasons to doubt this because of exceptions set out in his readings and interpretations of the Limpwrist and Gunplay studies.) WE CANNOT DEDICATE. WE CANNOT CONSECRATE (certain stipulations here point up faulty reasoning on the grounds of nebulous nomenclatures deleterious to non-academic educational pursuits of the topic.) WE CANNOT HALLOW (See Snaggletooth and Shovelhill, "Empiricism," V. II, pp. 245-982.)

(Authors note: For an unusually brief, largely elemental but acceptable discussion of the material succinctly studied, the student might spend a few minutes scanning H. G. Wells' "The Outline Of History," keeping in mind, however, that Wells' two volumes have little literary or scholarly merit because of the limited number of characters projected into the plot.)

The reader should be fully aware, by now, that Abe's well-intended but ill-documented speech at Gettysburg lacks real meaning. It is a shame that he hadn't been properly educated in how to write college textbooks. Had he belonged to that vast mutual admiration society, his words might have had a chance to become one of the greatest speeches in American history.

Communications Board Reviews Success Of Information Program

By Claudia Seammun

Evaluating the effectiveness of the three outdoor bulletin boards with posted information was the main topic of the Student Communications Board meeting Monday.

Earlier this semester, 2,000 questionnaires concerning the bulletin boards were sent to students. The Board sent one questionnaire to residents in each room of the campus housing units and to students who live off-campus, but are listed in the University directory.

From the 2,000 forms sent, 500 were returned. The following results were obtained:

Question 1. Have you ever stopped and read the information on the outside boards? Yes—75% No—25%

2. If you stopped, which one or ones of the following did you read? First place—Special Events (AWS Formal, "Medea," etc.); Second place—Feature (display from a residence hall or sorority); Third place—General (campus calendar, Conklin Hall newsletter, etc.) Fourth place—Official (announcements from the Student Council and University administration).

3. If you never stopped at the boards, did you ever notice the information as you walked by? Yes—99% No—1%

4. As you walked by, which sections did you notice? The answer was identical with the answer for number two.

5. How do you think the bulletin boards could be made more effective? First place—Use more colorful display; Second place—Eliminate fine print; Third—Have player of the week in minor sports; Fourth—Post more vital information on the boards.

Other suggestions on the questionnaire included: Having a historical section about the University and having announcements of the speakers for coffee hours in the Union.

6. Who sponsors these three bulletin boards? Various answers were given to this question ranging from the Union Activities Organization to the Association of Women Students. (The correct answer is the Student Body Communications Board).

One suggestion students mentioned for increasing the effective use of the boards was to give unclaimed posters to students who want them. This policy will be effective next year.

After hearing the questionnaire results, Anna M. Schneider, Frederick W. Richards, Daniel R. Yochem, and Jacqueline J. Beisler, Board members present at the meeting, discussed re-locating the bulletin boards.

Miss Schneider suggested the possibility of having a board near the library.

Dr. Jeff Clark, assistant professor of journalism and adviser to the Board, commented that placing a bulletin board where the faculty could see it more easily would benefit the idea of better communication.

In other discussion, Frederick W. Richards suggested that next year's Board have "better communication between its members." He said that information about meetings should be given more publicity.

To further the idea of better campus communications the Board has given program suggestions to members of the proposed "Project 70" closed-circuit television production.

Program ideas include having the closed-circuit televising of Student Council meetings and the various Student Boards' activities.

Also, campus television sets must be converted in order to receive such broadcasts.

Mid-American Conference Championships

Track, Golf, Tennis Teams At Kent

Brodt Predicts 4th Place Finish For Cindermen

Coach Mel Brodt predicts a fourth place finish for the Falcon trackmen in the Mid-American Conference Championships today and tomorrow at Kent.

Coach Brodt thinks Western Michigan will capture its fifth title in a row, followed by Miami, Ohio U., Bowling Green, Kent, and Toledo.

This has been a disappointing year for the thincads, who recorded only one dual meet win, 96-28 over winless Toledo. The team has lost to conference foes Miami, 106-42; Ohio U., 103-24; Kent State, 68 1-6-58 5-6; and Western Michigan, 108 1/2-38 1/2. The Falcons are 1-8 for the season.

However, Coach Brodt thinks the Falcons have improved enough to edge Kent State for fourth place in the championships.

Skip Wille, Burley Chapman, Walt Felgar, Jack Pietras, and Jack Solanik. Kneeling are Dick Ambrose, Whitley Randall, and Stu Hughes.

Falcon Golfers Among Favorites

By Neil Sanders

Powerful Marshall University, Ohio University and Bowling Green are favored in the Mid-American Conference golf championships today and tomorrow in Kent.

Boasting a 18-1 record, Marshall is heavily favored to terminate Ohio U's golfing dynasty. The Bobcats have monopolized the MAC championships nine of the last ten years, interrupted in 1956 when Bowling Green edged Western Michigan.

Marshall's lone setback this season was a 14-4 defeat to Ohio U. after the Big Green had claimed a 11 1/2-6 1/2 triumph over the Bobcats earlier in the campaign. Marshall owns 15-3 and 11 1/2-6 1/2 victories over the Falcons.

Comprising the much publicized Marshall team are: Jim Ward, number one man who competed in the National Amateur Championships at Pebble Beach, Calif. last summer; Pete Byer, 1961 MAC medalist with a 143, 18-hole total and a quarter-finalist in the NCAA; Harry Hoffer, former West Virginia State scholastic champion, who established a new course record this season with 31-34-65 against Morehead State University. Hoffer advanced to the semi-finals in the West Virginia state amateur classic before bowing to the eventual champion.

Defending champion Ohio University, seeking a fifth straight championship after edging Bowling Green last spring 751 to 760, has compiled a 15-6 mark this season.

Possessing conference wins over Western Michigan (18-6), Kent (22 1/2-1 1/2), Miami (22 1/2-1 1/2), and (13 1/2-10 1/2), and Marshall (14-4), Ohio U. is lead by lettermen Jerry Mollencop and Don Howell. Howell finished fourth individually in the MAC championships last season with 75-71-146. Mollencop had rounds of 67, 67, 68, and 69 in his record this season in dual matches.

Toledo University, although showing an impressive 18-8-2 season win-loss mark, is not considered a definite contender for the MAC title. Primary threat for the Rockets is Scott Weida who produced a 77.3 seasonal average.

Miami 14 1/2-3 1/2 victim of the Falcons, swept to a 7-9 record during the campaign, but like the Rockets, shouldn't push the favorites for the crown.

Western Michigan, fourth-place finisher in the MAC in 1961, should finish in the top four once again this season.

Attempting to capture Bowling Green's second golfing title since entering the MAC in 1953 and first under present golf mentor Forrest Creason (BG's title-winning team of 1956 was coached by Don Cunningham, Director of Sports Information,) the Falcons enter into the championship with a 12-6 mark, top golf record in Bowling Green history, surpassing last year's 12-8-1 mark.

Sophomores Stu Hughes and Dick Ambrose pace the Falcons with 75.6 and 75.8 averages respectively. Hughes was 10-5 over the campaign, while Ambrose was 9-7-1. Hughes best effort of the season was a 69 against Hillsdale, one stroke better than Ambrose's 70 against Kent.

Lettermen from last year's runner-up team, Chip Heyl and Skip Wille figure heavily in the Falcons' title hopes. Both golfers totaled -50, 18-hole totals to tie for 10th place laurels individually in the 1961 MAC championships.

Boasting a season-low of 69 against Kent State, Heyl averaged 77.7, while compiling the team's top individual mark with 11-4-1. Wille, 8-8 for the season, averaged 78.4, including an individual low of 72 at Hillsdale. Averaging 78.3, Burley Chapman claims a 6-9-2 record for the campaign. Chapman fired a 70 against Hillsdale for his best effort.

Vying for the sixth position (only the top five scores are totaled 150, 18-hole totals to tie for p) are Chuck Randall and Jack Pietras, who met in an elimination match Tuesday night. Randall averaged 80.5 in six rounds, while compiling a 3-2 record, compared to Pietras' 79.5 average in two rounds and a 2-1 mark.

The championships will be held on the Meadow View Country Club on which the Falcons totaled rounds of 69-70-70-70-72 for a 351, 18-hole five-man total while defeating Kent 15-3 earlier in the season. If the Falcons could duplicate this effort twice in the championships they would have a 702, 36-hole total. Last year Ohio University copped the title with a 751, 36-hole total.

TENNIS HOPES for the Falcons lie primarily with Ted Norris and Lee Murray. Murray has the top singles record with 9-2, while Norris is 8-3. In doubles the two have a record of 8-3.

Netters Enter Matches With Best BG Record

Bowling Green's tennis team will enter the Mid-American Conference Championships at Kent State today and tomorrow with the best season record a Falcon team has had in over 16 years. Compared to last year's team, which entered the championships with a 3-8 record, this year's Falcons are the reverse, 8-3.

Coach Robert Keefe is justifiably pleased with this team, having enjoyed his winningest season in seven years as tennis coach at Bowling Green.

How much of a chance do the Falcons have of winning the MAC Championships? Coach Keefe felt that "Bowling Green could be classified as a dark horse." Although the Kent State netters will probably be favored, he stated that the Falcons had an "outside chance" to take the championships.

A large measure of the Bowling Green hopes will be pinned on the No. 1 and No. 2 men, Lee Murray and Ted Norris. Murray is 9-2 against the opponent's best men, and Norris is 8-3 against the No. 2 men. Keefe praised both men when he said, "Murray and Norris are the two best sophomores I've coached at Bowling Green."

Denny Rash and Dick Leathers, the Falcons' No. 3 and No. 4 men, make up the other half of the team which will represent Bowling Green in the championships.

Each man will play one singles match. In the two doubles matches, Murray and Norris will team up against the opponent's No. 1 teams, while Rash and Leathers will face the No. 2 teams.

The Falcons hope to improve over last year when Bowling Green finished tied for 4th place.

Diamondmen Can End In 3rd Or 6th Place

Bowling Green has just two Mid-American Conference baseball games left, but they could mean the difference between third and sixth place in the final conference standings.

The Falcons host league runnerup Ohio U. at 3 p.m. today and 2 p.m. tomorrow at the University Field.

If the Falcons can defeat Ohio U. twice, while Miami is downing Kent twice, then the Falcons can finish as high as third in the conference. However, if the Falcons split, the best they can finish would then be a tie for third with Kent.

Bowling Green could even slip to sixth place if it lost both games to Ohio U., and Toledo were to have both its games with league-leading Western Michigan rained out.

As the conference now stands, Western Michigan is on top with a 7-0 record, followed by Ohio U. with a 7-3 mark. Kent is third with a record of 5-3, while Bowling Green is fourth with a 3-4 mark. Miami is in fifth place with a record of 4-6, while Toledo and Marshall are sixth and seventh with records of 3-5 and 0-8 respectively.

Coach Dick Young plans to pitch his ace of the mound staff, Jack Thompson, today, and come back with either Bob Bahna or Jim Keener tomorrow.

Bowling Green will have five players in the starting line-up with batting averages over the .300 mark.

First baseman Tom Tiettmeyer heads the list of Falcon hitters with an average of .474 in 21 games. Shortstop Jerry Paner and third baseman Bill Gast have .386 and .360 batting averages respectively. Rounding out the five are outfielder George Verber with a .333 average, and second baseman Gary Kimmel with an average of .317.

Tiettmeyer leads the team in hits with 36, in RBI's with 28, and is tied with Gast for the home run leadership with three.

Paner has scored the most runs with 20. Outfielder Glenn Honey-cut leads the team in stolen bases with 15, followed by Gast with 10.

As a team, Bowling Green is hitting .308, while its opponents are averaging .216 per game. However, Falcon pitching has given up 136 walks, while Bowling Green has had only 105.

The varsity baseball team will mark the final home appearance of a University team this season. The track, golf, and tennis teams will be competing at Kent today and tomorrow in the conference championships, while the freshman baseball team travels to Kent tomorrow for a doubleheader.

Keefe's Netters Defeat Oberlin

Coach Bob Keefe's netters finished their dual-match season with a 6-3 win over Oberlin Tuesday. The win gives the Falcons an 8-3 record, best ever by a University tennis team.

Both teams had identical records going into the match. Last year Oberlin defeated Bowling Green by the same 6-3 score.

The Falcons picked up five of six matches in singles competition to assure themselves of the victory.

The results were:

Singles: Lee Murray (BG) d. Phil Page (O) 6-0, 6-2. Ted Norris (BG) d. Joel Sherzer (O) 6-1, 6-4. Pete Burger (O) d. Dennis Rash (BG) 8-6, 8-6. Dick Leathers (BG) d. Mark Willard (O) 6-4, 6-3. Dick Haacke (BG) d. Ken Joslyn (O) 6-3, 6-3. Steve Brannan (BG) d. Dave Raymond (O) 6-1, 6-3.

Doubles: Page and Joslyn (O) d. Murray and Norris (BG) 9-7, 6-3. Leathers and Rash (BG) d. Sherzer and Jim Wright (O) 6-3, 6-1. Rich Baron and Eric Selts (O) d. Bob Dimling and Curt Reece (BG) 6-3, 6-3.

Coed Swim Meet To Be Held Tonight

The meet is open to all University women, except those in Splashers, women's competitive swimming team. A team may enter only two women in each of the eight events, and a woman may swim in only two events. Those entering the diving event will be required to do two dives.

Each woman must have two practices previous to the meet. Recreation swims from 7-9 p.m. on May 14 and 16 are scheduled for practice sessions.

Yearlings Face Kent Tomorrow

After handing the University of Toledo's freshman baseball team a 5-1 setback Tuesday, Bowling Green's yearlings will finish their season Saturday with a doubleheader at Kent.

Pitchers Frank Reyes and John Cook will be on the mound for the yearlings.

Tuesday's 5-1 triumph over Toledo was Bowling Green's fourth victory in a row over the Rocket freshmen. Two weeks ago, the Falcon yearlings tripped Toledo three times by scores of 12-5, 15-5, and 2-1.

Tom Rudolph went all the way for the Falcons, allowing just one run on five hits, and posting six strike outs.

Bowling Green collected seven hits, with four players accounting for them all. Dave Beer, Dave Rickert, and Earl Sharenburger each knocked out two hits, and Dave Wilkins smashed a triple.

The Falcon yearling's season mark now stands at 5-3.

Transportation Group Seeks New Members

Delta Nu Alpha, national transportation fraternity, is seeking new members.

This fraternity, which was founded at Wilmington, Del., in 1940, now has chapters on more than 130 college campuses in the United States "for the purpose of developing and creating a fuller knowledge and enthusiastic appreciation of the field of transportation."

The name of the fraternity is taken from the first letters of three classical Greek words. The first word "diakomion" may be translated as transportation. The second word "nikam" means conquers and the third word "anastavis" means distance. Thus the three words may be freely translated as "transportation conquers distance."

Delta Nu Alpha supplements class work by taking field trips to different transportation agencies and by having various transportation officials speak at its monthly meetings.

Any student interested in obtaining more information about the organization may contact Charles E. Stinebaugh, 308 S. Prospect St., for more information.
